

Back to the Future: Neoclassical Piano Reflections

9 November, 7:00 pm

St Peter's Church, Berkhamsted, HP4 2AX

Come and join us for a neoclassical piano concert featuring

Yaroslav Oliinyk

an acclaimed young composer and pianist from Ukraine. Yaroslav will showcase his original piano compositions and reimagined versions of famous music across various genres, merging the past and the future.

As you delve into the charming sounds of neoclassical piano, you'll be inspired to slow down, reconnect with yourself, and embrace the beauty of the present moment.

Don't miss out on the chance to be part of this captivating journey with Yaroslav!

Tickets: £12 (under 18 – free), online and on the door

Yaroslav Oliynyk is a virtuoso pianist known for his exceptional talent, technical mastery, and eclectic musical taste. His music transcends traditional genres, offering listeners a fresh and authentic experience. Yaroslav's performances are infused with energy, passion, and soul, as he effortlessly blends popular music with his own compositions.

Since graduating from the P.I. Tchaikovsky National Music Academy of Ukraine, Yaroslav has performed solo concerts both in Ukraine and internationally. He has earned numerous awards in prestigious piano competitions in Ukraine, France, the Czech Republic, Spain, and Italy. Yaroslav has also released three critically acclaimed albums of original music.

Joining Yaroslav on stage will be Alex Smirnov, a gifted Ukrainian saxophonist and flutist with over 20 years of international performance experience. Alex has played in numerous countries, including France, Austria, Germany, Poland, Russia, Belarus, Turkey, Israel, the UK, and the USA.

Throughout his career, he has collaborated with world-renowned artists like Didier Marouani & SPACE, David Ambrose, Sting, Andrea Bocelli, and many others.

www.educartevent.co.uk

St Peter's
Berkhamsted

www.stpetersberkhamsted.org.uk